ORDER:

In the references 1st and 2nd read above, the Commissioner of AYUSH has reported that admissions into UG & PG courses could not be taken up during the academic year 2011-2012, due to shortage of Teaching personnel on account of non availability of eligible candidates. The Govt. has therefore initiated all possible steps to fill up the vacancies of teaching posts. However, certain vacancies are anticipated and hence, the Commissioner of AYUSH has addressed the Central Council of Indian Medicine for their consent to engage the services of persons who were retired from service.

2 In the reference 3rd read above, the Central Council of Indian Medicine have conveyed their consent to engage the retired Professors / Readers/ Lecturers as per Qualification and experience prescribed by the Central Council of Indian Medicine, on contract basis to maintain the academic standards.

3 Keeping in view the consent given by the Central Council of Indian Medicine and with a view to ensure that such a situation where admissions were denied shall not repeat and in the interests of students desirous to study AYUSH courses both UG & PG for the academic year 2012-13, the Government after careful examination of the matter hereby permit the Commissioner of AYUSH to engage the services of retired Professors /Readers on contract basis, in order to fulfill the shortage of Teaching personnel for getting admission into PG & UG courses in all the three Ayurveda colleges in the State for the year 2012-13, duly following the method of appointment, subject to the following conditions:-

- a) The duration of the appointment shall not exceed one year from the date of appointment or until the post is filled up with a regular candidate, whichever is earlier.
- b) The remuneration to the contract faculty shall be restricted to the starting scale of pay of that particular post (basic pay only without any allowance) subject to the condition that remuneration and pension shall not exceed the last pay drawn of the individual.

- c) The age of the person on the date of appointment shall not exceed 65 years.
- d) The individual appointed against the sanctioned post shall perform all functions of the regular faculty
- e) The Commissioner of AYUSH, shall initiate the process of filling up the posts on regular basis and complete the process within the current financial year

4 The Commissioner of AYUSH shall also make a thorough exercise to fill up the existing vacancies by promotion and later assess the estimation of remaining Teaching vacancies in all the above said two cadres and then initiate action to engage the services of retired persons who are fully qualified and willing, for a period of one year only. The services of retired persons so appointed on contract shall be terminated as and when qualified persons of the department are available for appointment on regular basis. These orders are issued as a last resort.

5 The Commissioner of AYUSH shall take necessary action in the matter accordingly.

6 This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (SMPC-II) Dept. vide U.O.Note.No.10776/250/A1/ SMPC-II/ 2012, dated. 09-05-2012.
